CALL FOR PAPERS

Advanced and Intensive Programme in European Law and Economics ENP & Central Asia Focus Conference

Riga Graduate School of Law, December 2020

This call for papers is primarily targeted at the graduates of the Advanced and Intensive Programmes implemented by Riga Graduate School of Law. However, other authors may be selected for contribution based on academic merit and research relevance.

While embracing constitutional, institutional and substantive legal issues, the publication aims to integrate legal, economic, philosophical, political and social science perspectives. Articles in the publication are intended to be of particular interest to academics, policy makers and practitioners, as well as national and international governmental and non-governmental institutions and bodies within the European Union, the ENP countries and Central Asia.

The editors of the publication welcome contributions on a broad range of topics in particular in the areas covered by the Advanced and Intensive programmes:

European Union Law

International Law

Fundamental Rights in the Digital Age

International Dispute Resolution

International Sales Law

Legal Drafting and Legal Certainty

European Integration

Challenges to Democracies

National Policy Development

Society and Social Policy

Negotiation Techniques

Good Governance, Fraud and Corruption

Economic Development and International Trade

European Political Economy

Modern Taxation, Health and Social Policy (European) Project Management for the

Public Sector

Budget Planning

Economic Crisis Management

The deadline for submitting abstracts and research proposals is 30 June 2019 to advanced@rgsl.edu.lv.

The abstract and research proposal should not exceed 450 words and should include your name, affiliation and position along with information on whether you have been a participant in the Advanced of Intensive Programmes in European Law and Economics implemented by Riga Graduate School of Law.
