

A part / Mandatory courses

Law & Research	Diplomacy & Policy
Academic English	Introduction to Politics
Legal English	Theory of International Relations
Introduction to Law	Contemporary World History
Legal Philosophy	Introduction to Diplomacy
Legal Research Methods	International Security
Introduction to Civil Law	Foreign Policy Analysis
Constitutional Law	Diplomatic Protocol
Contract Law	Comparative Politics
Introduction to Public International Law	Crisis Management in International Politics
International Human Rights Law	Global Approaches to Public Diplomacy
Legal Skills	Political Negotiations Strategy and Tactics
Comparative Administrative Law
European Union Law
EU Institutional Law and Decision Making
International Diplomatic Law
Advanced Public International Law
Law of International Organizations
Advanced Research Methods
Legal Method
International Commercial Law
Legal Aspects of External Relations of the European Union

B part / Restrictive electives

International Humanitarian Law	Project Management
Migration: Legal, Political and Economic Aspects	Argumentation: Theory and Practice
Research Methods for Business Studies	Banking Law
Comparative Insurance Law	Saistību tiesību problēmas (taught in Latvian)
Lietu tiesības (taught in Latvian)	Analysis of Russian Politics
EU: Institutions, Governance and Competencies	International Sales Law
Data Analysis for Business	Proceedings Before the CJEU
Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution	Alternative Dispute Resolution-Mediation
European Legal History and Roman Law	Krimināltiesības (taught in Latvian)
Geo-economics: the Geopolitics of Energy	Darba tiesības (taught in Latvian)
International Tax Law	Optional: Moot Court
Formal Logic and Critical Thinking

C part / Free Elective

Languages
Russian Beginner I
Russian Beginner II
Russian Intermediate
Elementary Latvian I (A1)
French Beginner I
French Beginner II
Swedish Beginner
Spanish Beginner I
Spanish Beginner II
Optional: Internship