

LAW & BUSINESS

A part / Mandatory courses

Law & Research	Business & Economics
Introduction to Bachelor Studies in Law and Business Introduction to Law I Introduction to Latvian Law Introduction to Law II Public International Law Research Methods European Union Law Comparative Personal and Family Law Research Paper: Law Internal Market Law Comparative Contract Law Competition and State Aid Law Constitutional Law International Human Rights Law International Private and Procedural Law Research Paper in Law and Business Legal Method External Relations of the European Union International Commercial Law Advanced Research Methods Bachelor Thesis	Introduction to Business Studies Mathematics for Social Sciences Statistics for Social Sciences Microeconomics Business Strategy Business Accounting Macroeconomics Financial Economics Financial Accounting Applied Business Strategy International Economics

B part / Restricted electives

Law & Research	Business & Economics
Philosophy of Law International Humanitarian Law Introduction to Moot Court Criminal Law Comparative Criminal Law Media Law Banking and Securities Law Investment Protection Law Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution International Economic Law International Tax Law Comparative Inheritance Law Comparative Insurance Law Administrative Law Argumentation and Legal Reasoning Art Law Internet Law	Public Presentation Skills Introduction to Marketing Philosophy Project Management International Financial Management Data Protection Introduction to Entrepreneurship Social Psychology Organisational Communication

*It is possible to choose the restricted electives also from the Law & Diplomacy programme.

C part / Free Electives

Languages
Diplomatic English I
Diplomatic English II
Advanced Latvian
French Beginners I
French Beginners II
French Intermediate I
Spanish Beginners I
Spanish Beginners II
German Beginners I
German Beginners II