

Riga Graduate School of Law
Workshop on Legal Education
4 April 2023

09:30 – 10:00	Arrival and registration (RGS� Lobby)
	Coffee (Auditorium W20)
10:00 – 10:30	Excursion around RGS� (starting at auditorium W20)
10:30 – 11:00	Opening of the Workshop – “Current challenges in the higher education in Latvia” , Prof. Jānis Ikstens, the chair of RGS� board, Dean of the Faculty of Social Sciences of the University of Latvia
11:00 – 11:20	“Are law studies supposed to be interesting?” , Asst. prof. Arnis Buka (University of Latvia)
11:20 – 11:40	“Steps towards team-based learning at the Department of Criminal law, University of Tartu”
	Assoc. prof. Anneli Soo (University of Tartu)
11:40 – 12:00	“Engaging teaching methods: teaching strategies for active learning” , Bachelor programme director Inga Jēkabsone (Riga Graduate School of Law)
12:00 – 12:20	“The hidden curriculum in legal education” , Prof. Adam Czarnota (Riga Graduate School of Law)
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch
13:30 – 13:50	“Teaching rhetoric to law students - An interdisciplinary educational project at Örebro University” , Lect. Linus Roos (Örebro University)
13:50 – 14:10	“Online teaching experience” , Assoc. prof. Sideek Seyad (University of Stockholm)
14:10 – 14:30	“Learning by using online resources – a student’s perspective on studying international human rights law” , Elīna Rancāne (Riga Graduate School of Law, bachelor programme “Law and Diplomacy” Y3 student)
14:30 – 14:45	Coffee
14:45 – 15:05	“Counselling is a many-splendored thing: perspectives from UEF law school” , Senior lecturer, Vice-head for teaching Sampo Mielityinen (University of Eastern Finland)
15:05 – 15:25	“Student-centered approach to exams” , Asst. prof. Laura Ratniece (Riga Graduate School of Law)
15:25 – 16:00	A Practical exercise
16:00 – 16:15	Concluding remarks and reflections