

RGSL 4th International Student Research Paper Conference Programme

Friday, 13 October 2023

11:00-11:15	Opening speech by the Rector of RGSL, Prof. Adam Czarnota
11:15-11:30	Address by the RGSL Director Ieva Rācenāja and Excellence Award
11:30-12:00	Keynote lecture by RGSL Visiting Docent, Dr.sc.jur. Aleksandrs Potaičuks Data protection under review of the Constitutional Court: administrative databases directly accessible to public authorities
12:00-12:15	A word from a student – Paula Lipe, RGSL graduate of 2022
12:15-12:30	Break
12:30-13:30	Section 1 In the context of war Moderator: Anastasija Kaplane Location: W42	Section 2 Politics coming into play Moderator: Dr. Adam Czarnota Location: W41
	Lelde Dubere “The effect of anti-state Russian television and mass media propaganda dispersion in Latvia from the beginning of Russia v Ukraine war”	Julija Banceviča “Constitutional manoeuvrings and legal paradoxes: potential alternatives and outcomes of Poland's 2020 presidential election”
	Maksym Yaroshenko “Food pilage as international crime: a case study of Ukraine”	Oksana Bidnenko “High Anti-Corruption Court in the context of European integration: constitutional challenges”
	Nikola Elizabete Mietule “Meaning of rape as a weapon of war in a legal context”	Marta Kırse “Political Corruption: A Threat to Democracy?”
13:30-14:30	Lunch break

14:30-15:45

Section 3 Human Rights	Section 4 Competition and more
Moderator: Anastasija Kaplane Location: W42	Moderator: Dr. Inga Jēkabsone Location: W41
Beāte Bauga “The incompatibility of freedom of expression and the criminal liability for libel in Latvian legislation”	Patrīcija France “Identification of cartels under Section 11 of the Latvian Competition Law”
Olga Križanovska “Preventing domestic violence: is Russia violating its international human rights obligations?”	Natalia Potrubach “Competition law and personal data: challenges faced”
Miane Le Roux “Reproductive Rights: France’s Stance against Surrogate Motherhood Confirmed in the Bioethics Act 1994”	Ance Renāte Pundure “The protection of air passenger rights in the event of denied boarding, cancellation or delay of flight in the European Union”
Adele Sakoviča “Mandatory Hijab Law in Iran: Possible Violations of Article 18 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights”	Oona Tuomi “Cookie policies and privacy statements in the EU, making them more understandable to users” Nikola Ciparsone “Luxury brand counterfeiting in Spain – legal framework and impact on economy”