

RGSL 3rd International Student Research Paper Conference Programme

Friday, 23 September 2022

11:00-11:10	Opening speech by the Rector of RGSL, Prof. Adam Czarnota Location: W42 For the online audience: join the streaming here
11:10-11:20	Address by the RGSL Director Ieva Rācenāja and Excellence Award
11:20-12:00	Keynote lecture by RGSL Visiting Professor, Dr.sc.pol. Toms Rostoks Doing multidisciplinary research on international security: the many aspects of Russia's war against Ukraine Location: W42 For the online audience: join the streaming here
12:00-12:15	A word from a student – Markuss Kozlinskis, RGSL graduate of 2022 Location: online, streamed at W42 For the online audience: join the streaming here
12:15-12:30	Break
12:30-13:30	Section 1 Current issues in human rights: the ECHR and beyond Moderator: Anastasija Kaplane Location: W42	Section 2 Person, data and the law Moderator: Dr. Inga Jēkabsonsone Location: W41
	Elvita Kaša “Reasonable time under Article 6(1) of European Convention of Human Rights”	Amanda Račiņa “Legality of Passenger Data collection and retention in accordance with the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union”
	Anna Zapletina “The Legality of Euthanasia under the European Convention on Human rights”	Oona Tuomi, “The connection between the principle of confidentiality and cybersecurity in the processing of health data”
	Artjoms Starovoitovs “Protection of Human Rights as Bar to Extradition”	Katrīna Cīrule “The limits of the right to be forgotten”
	Sandra Kutt (online)	Ketlīna Krista Jaunozola

	“Protection against trafficking in human beings: legal framework in place and its challenges”	“Mental health diagnosis and its impact on criminal homicidal behaviour and judicial sentencing”
13:30-14:30	Lunch break
14:30-15:15	Section 3 Back to the foundations: issues relating to Constitutional Law Moderator: Ieva Miļūna Location: W42	Section 4 A look into national jurisdictions Moderator: Dr. Aleksandrs Fillers Location: W41
	Jūlija Banceviča, “The declaration and management of the state emergency connected to the first outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 under the Latvian Constitution: a comparison with the Swedish perspective”	Elīna Greine “Comparative research on foreign university diploma recognition at the European Union level. Recognition in Spanish and Latvian legislations”
	Oksana Bidnenko “Oligarchy: a threat to Constitution?”	Elīna Rancāne “The Legal and Moral Issues Arising from The Prosecution of Terrorism in the U.S.”
	Valērija Ruta Hartmane “State's Obligation to Establish Palliative Care Under Articles 95 and 111 Of the Constitution of Latvia”	Ieva Lizete Rožkalna (online) “Responsibility of children’s health and vaccination process: a case of the Czech Republic”
15:15-15:30	Break
15:30-16:00	Section 5 Old problems and new approaches in International Law Moderator: Anastasija Kaplane Location: W42	Section 6 Contemporary issues in Tax &amp; Financial Law Moderator: Dr. Inga Jēkabsone Location: W41
	Ieva Remerte “Principle of Distinction and the Cyber Attacks Conducted in Ukraine”	Raimonds Dolfs Jēkabsons “Classification of Non-fungible tokens from the legal perspective and its impact on money laundering”
	Paula Šūtava “Possible drug-smuggling threats to state security caused by diplomatic bag confidentiality”	Polina Busarova “Reforms in contemporary International Tax Law”
16:00-16:30	Crisis at the EU border: a diplomatic perspective Aleksandra Sonja Miķelsone “EU Member States’ Response to the Belarus-EU Border Crisis” Location: W42	