

ACTION IN THE EVENT OF AN ARMED INTRUSION

MAIN EMERGENCY CONTACT AT RGSL: IMANTS JEVDOKIMOVŠ (29244834)

ESCAPE

- Leave quickly and quietly
- Warn others to stay away from the area where the attacker is
- Take your mobile phone and other belongings only if they do not hinder your escape
- Move as far as possible from the danger zone

HIDE

- Hide out of the attacker's sight
- Silence your phone
- Stay away from doors and be quiet
- Try to place a strong physical barrier between yourself and the offender
- Help others, but only if it does not endanger yourself or others
- Continuously assess the situation

NOTIFY

- When it is safe, call the police at 112
- Provide information about what happened, your location and the number of attackers
- Upon request from the police, "stay on the line" to provide additional information requested by the call operator, or if the situation changes

COOPERATE WITH THE POLICE

- Follow police instructions
- Follow emergency responders' instructions
- Avoid sudden movements or shouting
- Keep your hands visible

KEEP IN MIND

The police may not be able to distinguish you from the offender

The police priority will be to deal with the immediate threat and identify the attacker

The police may treat you strictly as well