

ACTION IN THE EVENT OF VIOLENT PROTESTS INDOORS

RIGA
GRADUATE SCHOOL OF LAW

1. STAY CALM AND ALERT

- Remain calm and avoid panic. If possible, observe your surroundings and assess the situation
- If the protest becomes violent, stay away from conflict areas
- Try to leave the premises if it is safe to do so

MAIN EMERGENCY
CONTACT AT RGSL:
IMANTS JEVDOKIMOV
(29244834)

2. AVOID CONFLICT, SEEK SAFETY

- If possible, leave the area and move to a safe place, such as a room with fewer people, and lock doors if necessary
- If you cannot leave, seek assistance from security personnel or others who may help

3. PROTECT YOURSELF AND OTHERS

- If the protest becomes violent, involving physical confrontations or vandalism, avoid any provocative actions
- Do not engage in conflict
- If you are near damaged objects (glass, furniture, etc.), stay away from them

4. FOLLOW SAFETY INSTRUCTIONS

- Follow any official instructions from the administration, security personnel or authorities
- If evacuation procedures or restrictions are announced, follow them immediately

5. AVOID PROVOCATIONS

- Do not initiate conflict under any circumstances, even if protesters are aggressive
- Remember that your reaction may escalate the situation
- If possible, avoid communication with aggressive protesters

6. REPORT / NOTIFY AUTHORITIES

- If the situation becomes serious, call emergency services (police, fire department, emergency medical services) and report the incident
- Provide accurate information about your location and the situation if it is safe to do so

7. FOLLOW UPDATES AND OFFICIAL GUIDANCE

- If possible, monitor news or official announcements to stay informed about developments
- Use reliable information sources

8. REPORT TO THE POLICE IF NECESSARY

- After the incident, if you were affected, witnessed or involved in the event, report it to the relevant authorities (e.g., police)
- Provide information that may assist any investigation